

Workshop with the U.S. government, diamond buyers and NGOs
Developing a roadmap for a supply chain of artisanal diamonds from Africa
Tiffany & Co. Foundation
December 12, 2011

- 9:00 - 9:15 Welcome, review conclusions from the October workshop, present agenda and workshop rules
- 9:15 - 9:45 Artisanal mining household economics: results from a survey in Liberia
- 9:45 - 10:15 U.S. Geological Survey report: diamond deposits in the Central African Republic
- 10:15 - 10:45 Case study of a past USAID project direct marketing diamonds from Sierra Leone
- 10:45 - 11:00 Fair Trade presentation

11:00 - 11:15 BREAK

- 11:15 - 12:00 Review the conclusions made in October on the supply chain model, allowing further discussion, new ideas and important questions
- 12:00 - 12:30 Explanation of elements of public-private partnership models

12:30 - 1:15 Lunch

- 1:15 - 1:45 Establishing the common objective of piloting a supply chain of artisanal diamonds from Africa
- 1:45 - 2:30 Group brainstorm key actions necessary for partnership development

2:30 - 2:45 BREAK

- 2:45 - 3:45 Task teams dig down into actions identified to define specific, sequential, and time limited tasks
- 3:45 - 4:45 Develop a partnership calendar, or roadmap, with immediate next steps, organization commitment, and consider a fact-finding trip to the Central African Republic
- 4:45 - 5:00 Closing comments